

FEMALE TEENAGERS PERCEPTION TOWARDS ACEHNESE LANGUAGE IN LANGSA

ABSTRACT

This study focuses on the female teenagers' perceptions towards Acehese language in Langsa, how female teenagers' perceptions toward Aceh language and what factors that influence the perception of female teenagers towards Aceh language. The technique of collected data by transcription of female teenagers answers at Gampong Teungoh in Langsa. The results of this study are: female teenagers' perceptions are Acehese language is the language from their families and parents. Language that have different meaning, different sounds in some place, it has cultural meaning and specific characteristics, the unic words and sounds, the factors that influence of the female teenagers' perceptions are: from their experiences at school and home, from their parents, friends, teachers, cleric and others. They heard before, when other speak and when their parents tell about Aceh language then from their teachers when teaching about Aceh language.

Keywords: Aceh Language, Female Teenagers, Perception, Factors.