

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

In analyzing the type of metaphor in five selected poetry by Amir Hamzah, the researcher found 7 dead metaphor, 3 cliché metaphor, 3 standart metaphor, 2 recent metaphor, 2 original metaphor, and 1 adapted metaphor. And the dominantly of each type is dead metaphor. The six types of metaphor it self is the classification from Newmark's theory. Beside that, the researcher also has analyzing the meaning of each word or sentence that exist in five poetry. So the researcher made the conclusion such as following below:

1. All his creation or all of Poetry of Amir Hamzah almost tell the story of his life which is being a melancholy and also his love for his Lord and his mother. He also many used Melayu language for his poetry.

2. Mostly the lyric of poetry by Amir Hamzah used Melayu language for his poetry, that is because he is a Malaya.
3. It can be concluded that every word that he is pouring in his works is used very unusual meaning or not the real purpose. Each word that he taken was very has deep meaning.
4. It can also be concluded that Amir Hamzah's poetry not only tells about sadness but also about love. Making poetry as the object of research makes the researcher know the different languages used in poetry.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the result of this research, the researcher made some suggestion such following belows :

1. Using poetry as media is important and interesting in literature subject. The researcher could give poetry as the example of learning figurative language to next researcher and suggest onto the next researcher who want to conduct poetry analysis. They can do further research such as analyzing style, theme or value in the poetry.
2. The researcher hopes that this research can be one of reference for another researcher that want to analyze about metaphor or another figurative language in any other literature such as lyric, novel and so on.

3. The researcher hopes this one can be interested by other researchers that will analyze about metaphor deeply. And also about poetry that each poetry has always beautiful language which is so many study inside it.
